

This Memorandum of Understanding ("MoU") is entered into on September 1st, 2025, by and between:

Green Eco Global Initiative (GEGI), P.O. Box 92, 10400 Nanyuki, Kenya

And

GoKenya Change Organization (GKC), Ørstedesvej 10, 8600 Silkeborg, Denmark

The parties wish to enter a partnership to support indigenous communities, with the Maasai in Ilmotiok, northern Laikipia County, Kenya as the top priority, through the implementation of development projects.

Both parties are committed to promoting human rights and gender equality, engaging local masai people, and contributing to the United Nations' 17 sustainable development goals.

Areas of cooperation

- Jointly implement projects to improve living conditions, prioritizing access to water, crop cultivation, and health, for example by constructing stoves with chimneys.
- Provide salaries to Maasai individuals working on our projects. Neither Søren Chr. Sørensen nor Glennie Grønne from GKC will receive any salary for their four months of full-time work in GKC each year.
- Secondary initiatives include soap and cream production, football tournaments, a vanilla farm, and a poultry farm.
- Strengthen partnership between Denmark and Kenya, ensuring positive learning experiences for all volunteers and workers.
- Ensure that all activities include the representation of women, men, youth, and elders, sharing knowledge across groups.
- The Parties are not affiliated with any political or religious organizations.

Oversight and quality assurance

A joint Implementation Committee, co-chaired and with equal representation from each Party, shall:

- Oversee and coordinate project implementation.
- Provide technical expertise and monitor quality, effectiveness, and compliance.

- Conduct regular assessments and recommend improvements.
- Promote cooperation, knowledge sharing, and resource mobilization.

Board meetings will be held for two hours every four months at 2 pm (Kenya time).

The Board will meet for the first time at the founding general meeting on December 20, 2025, to confirm agreements, meeting structure, roles, and responsibilities. Glennie will lead the meetings.
